Turn right when you get to the level crossing.

Cross the bridge on the left hand side.

At the pedestrian crossing by the roundabout, cross the road.

Turn left, then immediately right into New Road.

Take the first right into Kibes Lane.

Walk along Kibes Lane for about 100m to the car park entrance and turn into the car park.

Southern Maltings is the building in front of you, walk to your right until the very end of the building.

Between the end of the Maltings and the houses on Bowling Road, there is a wall. In the wall is a metal gate. Go through it and you'll find the entrance to the building.

The poetry is upstairs on the first floor. There is a lift, if you need one, next to the stairs.
